Tournament which begins Monday. Other institutions represented at the tournament will be South Carolina, Georgia, Davidson, Clemson, with the probability of Georgia Tech, Tulane and others entering the meet. The meet was held last year in Atlanta and was won by Georgia. Chambers & Oates have been practicing steadily with the best players in college and with members of the faculty, and are in splendid form for the forthcoming meet. Prospects are exceedingly bright for a creditable showing by the Carolina representatives.

If you find it in the ring, come to the Business Office of The Times-Dispatch and claim your ticket to next Thursday's ball game. It will admit you to seats and grandstand.
